

COLLEGE LA PREVOYANCE			ANNEE SCOLAIRE 2024/2025
DEPARTEMENT	EVALUATION	EPREUVE	CLASSE	DUREE	COEF
ANGLAIS	COMPO TRIM 2	ANGLAIS	Tle ACD	2H	4/3

ENGLISH LANGUAGE

SECTION A: Grammar(10 Marks) I-Rewrite or simply continue the sentences as started for you or as instructed in the brackets. (5mrks)

1)-She is addicted to drugs. She is very disrespectful.

In addition to her _____

2)-“They will have liver problems if they consume alcohol abusively”.Emphasized the toxicologist

_____ (Report)

3)-If Joe had a good CV for that job, he would be recruited.

Had _____

4)-“Let’s be serious, it’s good for our success” The class-mate declared.

The class-mate declared that we _____

5)-Pa Moni drinks abusively. He also smokes a lot of cigarettes. (Rewrite using not only... but)

Pa Moni does _____

6)-Peter didn’t pollute the nature. He did not also degrade the ecology. (Rewrite using neither...nor)

7)-John prefers online shopping. Mary prefers online shopping. (Rewrite using both...and)

8)-The drunkards violated the crooks. The crooks violated the drunkards. (Rewrite by choosing each-other or one-another)

9)-He wrote the test and gave his paper to the teacher. (put the sentence in the plural form)

10)-Some health experts sensitized them on the preventions of communicable diseases. (ask a question)

_____?

II-Complete the conversation by choosing the best options from the brackets. (5 mrks)

Godlove: My dear friend it’s Election Day what are you doing at home? Come on, let’s go and vote.

Daisy: Sorry my friend I don’t feel concerned with those elections. I have never voted before so I wonder _____ (unless, if, before) my vote will change anything.

Godlove: No! You are wrong, voting is your duty as a citizen of this country. You must vote _____ (so-that, so-as- not-to, in-order-to) change things in your country.

Daisy: Yes! You are right. Despite the _____ (Government’s, governments’s, governments’) failure to satisfy our demands we have to vote so as to change our country.

Godlove: Exactly, I think by the year 2035, things _____ (will have changed, wouldn’t change, would have changed) for the better.

Daisy: Then, what are we waiting for? Lets go and fulfill our duty. The future of our country _____ (depends-in, depends-on, depends-to) us.

SECTION B: Vocabulary. I-Complete the paragraph with the best options from the list (5mrks)

LIST: (recycling, well-being, climate, desert, fossil-fuels, global-warming, variations)

1) _____ is a situation that occurs when there is a steady increase in the world's temperature. This situation is caused by deforestation, bush fire and the burning of 2) _____. This situation has numerous impacts like seasonal 3) _____ and the advancement of the desert just to name a few. But as there's never an illness without a prevention or cure, some environmentalist and NGOs have proposed some preventive measures like afforestation project, and the constant 4) _____ of our wastes materials. If these preventive measures are well put in place, then we shall be free from these environmental phenomena that are causing a lot of nuisance to our 5) _____

II-Use the appropriate missing expression from the list to complete the paragraph below. (5mrks)

(candidate, ballot-box, balloting, municipal-councillors, campaign, polling-station, ballot-papers)

Last February 19th, John went to the 1) _____ to vote the next 2) _____ and the MPs. At the station, he was first identified and later on asked to take six 3) _____, go into the isolator, secretly choose his 4) _____, put the chosen paper in an envelope before moving-on to put it inside the 5) _____. After that he then mark his finger print against his name and picture, signed and went back home. His civic duty was well accomplished.

SECTION C: READING COMPREHENSION (10 MARKS) Read the text below and answer the questions that follow in complete English sentences. Use your own words as far as you can.

THE HISTORY OF MIDWIFERY IN AMERICA

The history of midwifery in the United States of America goes back to the mid-seventeenth century, when midwives arrived on the Mayflower with the first colonists. In those early days, midwives attended all childbearing women, as physicians were not encouraged to be present during birth. However, by the end of the eighteenth century and during the early nineteenth century, male physicians became interested in the science of obstetrics and were called "male midwives". As formal medical education developed, midwives and their home remedies were frowned upon by male leaders of the medical profession. It was not long before men established themselves as appropriate attendants in the birthing chamber, and by the early nineteenth century, midwives were no longer the sole birthing attendants for the middle and upper classes. They, however, continued to birth the poor, indigent and slave populations.

In the early 1900s, with the large influx of immigrants to America, over 50 percent of all births were attended to by midwives. Often the midwives were from the same country of origin as the childbearing families, and thus were familiar with the special customs and ceremonies expected. By 1910, the birth-rate in America had increased significantly. Unfortunately, there was also an increase in maternal and infant deaths and the midwife began to be looked upon as an incompetent and careless practitioner. As a result, organised medicine became more forceful in its arguments against home births and midwives. Physicians carried out a campaign to remove midwives from practice and families began to turn to physicians and hospitals for their maternity care.

Interestingly, it was public health officials who continued to support the role of the midwife. In the early 1900s, after studying birthing practices around the world, the public health commission reported that infant and maternal mortality rates were significantly lower in those countries that used midwives. Further study revealed that midwives in these countries were well trained and considered an established part of their health-care system. Today, according to the World Health Organisation, midwives deliver over three-quarters of all births. In developing countries, midwifery is influenced by local health-care systems. Outside the United States, midwives are trained in schools of midwifery, their practice is regulated by law, and births are attended in clinics, hospitals, homes, huts, and tents. Because of the shortage of trained physicians, midwives run most clinic facilities and only call on physicians when emergencies or severe complications occur. (Adapted from Deborah Bash, Topic, Issue No. 148, pp 36-39)

QUESTIONS

1)-Who aided all childbearing women in the mid-seventeenth century? _____ Why ?

_____ (2 marks)

2) -Mention two categories of people who were taken care of by midwives. _____ (2 marks)

3) -Why were the midwives under-looked around the 1910s? _____ (2 marks)

4)-According to the text, in what way are midwives different from the other trained health physicians? _____ (2marks)

5)- Are midwives useful in your society today? _____ Justify your answer. _____ (2 marks)

SECTION D: Composition: (10 Marks) Write an essay of between 250-300 words on any topic chosen below.

Topic 1- You are John oko from GBHS Kumbo, you want to be voted as the president of your school's cooperative union. Write a campaign speech in which you denounce some bad behaviours practised by the students in your school. In your speech, you should identify any three bad practices done by your school or class mates, explain the impacts on their academic lives and describe how you will help the school authorities to eradicate this social malpractices and promote the moral values in your school.

Topic2-There has been an argument in a popular TV station in your town these days based on gender and responsibility. This has prompted a hot debate in your social group on the theme: 'Women are highly responsible for their marginalization in the society' Justify your point of view by clearly showing at least three righteous and unrighteous sides of this assertion before justifying your stand.

Topic3: More and more people in your community are constantly polluting the nature and degrading the environment with their wastes products and this act is tremendously disturbing the well being of people in your society as they are constantly suffering from problems which are related to pollution. You are Wiseman Oben from CCAS PO Box 75 Kumbo. Write a letter to the editor of The Herald news magazine to report on the situation of pollution mentioned above. (state four main causes of the above phenomenon, mention four of its effects on the nature and propose some measures to successfully fight out this environmental hazard)

Correction de l'Examen d'Anglais - Tle ACD

COLLEGE LA PREVOYANCE

2ème Trimestre 2024/2025

SECTION A : Grammaire (10 points)

I. Réécrivez ou complétez les phrases (5 points)

- 1) In addition to her addiction to drugs, she is very disrespectful.
- 2) The toxicologist emphasized that they would have liver problems if they consumed alcohol abusively.
- 3) Had Joe had a good CV for that job, he would have been recruited.
- 4) The class-mate declared that we should be serious as it was good for our success.
- 5) Pa Moni not only drinks abusively but also smokes a lot of cigarettes.
- 6) Peter neither polluted the nature nor degraded the ecology.
- 7) Both John and Mary prefer online shopping.
- 8) The drunkards and the crooks violated one another.
- 9) They wrote the tests and gave their papers to the teachers.
- 10) Did some health experts sensitize them on the preventions of communicable diseases ?

II. Complétez la conversation (5 points)

Godlove : My dear friend it's Election Day what are you doing at home? Come on, let's go and vote.

Daisy : Sorry my friend I don't feel concerned with those elections. I have never voted before so I wonder if my vote will change anything.

Godlove : No! You are wrong, voting is your duty as a citizen of this country. You must vote in-order-to change things in your country.

Daisy : Yes! You are right. Despite the government's failure to satisfy our demands we have to vote so as to change our country.

Godlove : Exactly, I think by the year 2035, things will have changed for the better.

Daisy : Then, what are we waiting for? Lets go and fulfill our duty. The future of our country depends-on us.

SECTION B : Vocabulaire (10 points)

I. Complétez le paragraphe (5 points)

Global-warming is a situation that occurs when there is a steady increase in the world's temperature. This situation is caused by deforestation, bush fire and the burning of fossil-fuels. This situation has numerous impacts like seasonal variations and the advancement of the desert just to name a few. But as there's never an illness without a prevention or cure, some environmentalist and NGOs have proposed some preventive measures like afforestation project, and the constant recycling of our wastes materials. If these preventive measures are well put in place, then we shall be free from these environmental phenomena that are causing a lot of nuisance to our well-being.

II. Complétez le paragraphe (5 points)

Last February 19th, John went to the polling-station to vote the next municipal-councillors and the MPs. At the station, he was first identified and later on asked to take six ballot-papers, go into the isolator, secretly choose his candidate, put the chosen paper in an envelope before moving-on to put it inside the ballot-box. After that he then mark his finger print against his name and picture, signed and went back home. His civic duty was well accomplished.

SECTION C : Compréhension écrite (10 points)

1. Midwives aided all childbearing women in the mid-seventeenth century because physicians were not encouraged to be present during birth at that time.
2. Two categories of people taken care of by midwives were : the poor and slave populations.
3. Midwives were underlooked around 1910 because there was an increase in maternal and infant deaths, and they began to be viewed as incompetent and careless practitioners.
4. According to the text, midwives are different from other trained health physicians in that they are trained in schools of midwifery, their practice is regulated by law, and they attend births in various settings (clinics, hospitals, homes, huts, and tents), while typically only calling on physicians for emergencies.

étudiant requise Exemple : Yes, midwives are useful in my society today because they provide essential maternal care, especially in rural areas where doctors are scarce, and they have specialized training in normal childbirth that helps reduce complications.

SECTION D : Composition (10 points)

[Note : Cette section nécessite une rédaction originale de l'étudiant. Voici une structure type pour le Sujet 1.]

Exemple de réponse pour le Sujet 1 (Discours de campagne)

"Dear fellow students and respected teachers,

I stand before you today as John Oko, aspiring to be your next cooperative union president. Our school faces several challenges that hinder our academic progress, and I wish to address three major issues :

First, the rampant cheating during examinations. This dishonest practice not only devalues our certificates but prevents students from developing true knowledge. Second, the frequent lateness to classes disrupts lessons and shows disrespect to our teachers. Third, the bullying of younger students creates an environment of fear rather than learning.

These behaviors have serious impacts : they lower academic standards, damage our school's reputation, and prevent many students from reaching their full potential.

As president, I will :

- Organize regular awareness campaigns about academic integrity
- Work with class monitors to improve punctuality
- Establish an anti-bullying committee where students can report issues confidentially

Together, we can restore moral values in GBHS Kumbo. Vote for me, John Oko, for positive change!"

Total des points : 40

Chaque section vaut 10 points comme indiqué dans le sujet d'examen